

Flagpole dedicated on Pearl Harbor Day

CONTRIBUTED REPORT

In recognition of Pearl Harbor Day, Cub Scout Pack 893 and Boy Scout Troop 1893 gathered in front of St. Edward-Epiphany School (SEES) early Monday morning to dedicate the school's new flagpole.

Commander Harry Jaeger and his staff at the U.S. Navy Operational Support Center in Richmond joined the young Scouts for the special occasion and Commander Jaeger presented a flag flown over the U.S. Capitol to SEES assistant principal, Justin Andrew.

The flagpole is dedicated to the "Past, Present and Future Heroes That Serve and Protect the United States of America."

The flag was donated by U.S. Congressman Dave Brat. Funding for the flagpole was provided by St. Edward the Confessor Parish Knights of Columbus 6546 and the Scout packs.

The flagpole was dedicated on the 74th anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor.

Funding for the flagpole was provided by St. Edward the Confessor Parish Knights of Columbus 6546, Cub Scout Pack 893 and Boy Scout Troop 1893.
